Dear Stakeholder

Mpumalanga Forestry Sector Development Plan Consultation Workshop

Forestry has been identified as one of the economic growth pillars for the province to meet its Vision 2030 goals; this is to contribute to socio-economic development trajectory of Mpumalanga province. The department of Economic Development and Tourism has commenced in developing a Forestry Sector Development plan for the province. The plan seeks to, unearth opportunities for development in the sector and unlock the barriers for growth.

As a key stakeholder in the forestry sector you are invited to a stakeholder consultation session. The purpose of the workshop is to engage with key stakeholders to discuss current and potential activities of development in forestry sector and solicit inputs to enrich the draft sector plan. The consultation workshop is arranged as follows:

Date: 06 March 2019

Venue: Floreat Lodge, Sabie

Time: 09:00 – 14:00

Your participation is highly appreciated. Kindly confirm your attendance with Ms Nomusa Madonsela on or before 28 February at 013 766 4388 or madonselan@mpg.gov.za.

Yours sincerely

Mr SN Nkonyane

Acting Chief Director: Economic Planning
